DAY CAMPS

This summer take advantage of the Day Camp opportunities at the site near you. There will be day camp programs at most of our United Methodist Camps or off-site opportunities led by the Camp Minnesota staff. If you know of a camper not quite ready for an overnight camp this is a great opportunity for them to find out what camp is all about. Kids will play and create in the outdoors as they learn about amazing ways God has designed our world.

At Star Lake these little "critters" will be encouraged to play in the mud, swim at the beach and hike to their hearts content for almost two full days! For these two nights they will sleep in platform tents-don't forget to bring your teddy bear! It's so easy to teach "critters" about God's critters when surrounded by all that God's created.

When the sun sets (and everyone else is snoozing), the woods come alive with nocturnal critters and amazing sounds. Burn off that sleepy energy with night games, or take it a bit slower floating on a canoe raft while stargazing, or ...? And every day you'll have time to think about the God who created this beautiful place.

You'll also get in on Star Lake traditions like opening and closing campfires (Mmm, hobo dinner!), beach time, and a fantastic breakfast on the day you have to go home. E-mail: pastor@littleprairieumc.org

The Boundary Waters are a wonderful, majestic beauty to experience for the first time or with your family. But where does one begin? And how old should my children be before taking them into the Boundary Waters? Well new this year is our Boundary Waters for Families and New Beginners. This camp is a great opportunity to learn about the BWCAW, and get introduced to BWCAW camping. The experience will be catered around the group's ability, staying in camp a few nights, utilizing our wilderness site on Section 12 Lake, day tripping into the BWCAW and possibly going on an overnight paddle into the BWCAW. Pastor Gordon and his wife Melissa will be co-leading this trip along with their soon to be 3 year old daughter, and just about 1 year old son. Combined they have been on over 60 trips into the BWCAW both as campers and leaders, even bringing their daughter on two trips when she was only 1. There will be opportunities for learning, activities for young children, and relaxing and enjoying God's beauty. We hope you and/or your family will consider this great opportunity to experience the BWCAW together.
