Event Description:

Tailor-made for persons with developmental special needs. Participants need to be fully ambulatory, with ability to be semi to fully independent in the areas of personal hygiene and grooming. Campers will enjoy a Christian community filled with nurturing care to experience God's love and presence in a very real way. First time Friendship campers need to talk with the dean prior to registration. They will take part in worship, music, crafts, swimming, games, sport activities, pontoon rides, and more.
